

CORPORATE ONLINE LEARNING AND ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Demand Driven Institute is launching a new remote learning initiative for large multinational entities called our Corporate Online Learning and Support Center.

DDI will provide a dedicated and secure custom webpage for companies hosted at the DDI domain. www.demanddriveninstitute.com. The webpage will feature the following attributes:

- Embedded videos and messages from company leadership about Demand Driven and how to use the page (Optional).
- Self-Study access for authorized personnel to the Demand Driven Planner (DDP)™ and/or the Demand Driven Leader (DDL)™ programs in English, French, Spanish, Italian, Polish and Arabic including pdf versions of the courseware.
- Access to Demand Driven Planner (DDPP)™ and/or Demand Driven Leader Professional (DDL)™ exam voucher codes for authorized personnel.
- Sample exam questions and solution keys.
- Periodic scheduled online sessions with DDI Thought Leaders and/or Master Instructors totaling a cumulative amount of six hours.

Pricing starts at $550 per employee. A 25-seat minimum commitment is required to initiate the program. The initial term of the program is for 12 months. The program can be extended for an additional year for an additional 25 seat commitment.

Pricing Table:

	1 Language	2 Languages	3 Languages
1 Self-Study Program (DDP or DDL)	$550	$600	$700
2 Self-Study Programs (DDP & DDL)	$950	$1000	$1050

Additional Program Configuration

Single hosted program, additional program request by Employee – this program allows a self-study program (either DDP or DDL) on the company page hosted by DDI and then has a request form for employees to request to take the other program in any language. That request is approved by the company administrator and the made available to the employee through the DDI Self-Study Delivery portal for $450 per employee. For example, a company might have the DDP in available in English and Spanish on its page for authorized employees. Any of those employees can then request to take the DDL in any language. Once approved by the company administrator DDI enables the employee's account for English DDL Self-Study.
